

Second Announcement and Call For Papers

1st ASIAN CONFERENCE ON COLD CHAIN

Sep. 23-25, 2019, Wuhan, China

□ INTRODUCTION

Asian Conference on Cold Chain (ACCC) will be a series of conferences sponsored by Technical Institute of Physics and Chemistry, Chinese Academy of Sciences (TIPC-CAS), Chinese Association of Refrigeration (CAR), Japan Society of Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers (JSRAE), and The Society of Air-Conditioning and Refrigerating Engineers of Korea (SAREK). The conference will be held biennially in China, Japan, South Korea and other countries in Asia in turn.

This conference is an important international academic forum in the field of cold chain, offering attendees around the world an opportunity to discuss the current technique, information, products and solutions to ensure the food quality and food safety. 1st Asian Conference on Cold Chain (ACCC) will be held in Wuhan, China on September 23-25, 2019.

□ ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

The participants are kindly invited to submit extended abstracts to the local organizing committee by email acc2019@mail.ipc.ac.cn or submit the extended abstracts on the website of www.acc2019.org. Accepted abstracts are requested to be presented orally or by poster in the conference.
